ORDER

LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

The Clerk's Office has notified the Court that it has received a motion from the anonymous owner of a certain Youtube account to quash a subpoena issued to Google seeking information regarding that Youtube account. The motion is captioned with the case number of this action. It was submitted anonymously by email to the pro se filing office and does not contain information identifying the movant.

Parties in federal court generally must identify themselves by name, unless a court has determined that the party's interest in anonymity outweighs the public interest in disclosure and any prejudice to the opposing party. See Sealed Plaintiff v. Sealed Defendant, 537 F.3d 185, 188–89 (2d Cir. 2008). Accordingly, the Court will not entertain the motion to quash unless it is either de-anonymized or accompanied by a motion requesting leave to proceed anonymously in this Court and explaining why the movant's interest in anonymity outweighs the public interest in disclosure and any prejudice to the opposing party. See id.

The Clerk's Office is directed to respond to the anonymous email with a copy of this Order.

SO ORDERED.
